Northwest Regional Hoarding Conference 2022

10am-4pm Monday 16 May 2022

Crawford House, Upper Warwick Street, Liverpool L8 8DN

BEHIND CLOSED DOORS

Conference attendance will increase participants' Hoarding literacy and provide the opportunity to engage with people who have substantial lived experience and expertise in this area.

- "We need to talk about Hoarding" (includes Q & A sessions with group peers and family members)
- Models of good practice: Groups and individuals
- The A to Z of intervention: Embracing lived experience and expertise
- Film Premiere: 'Inside Out' (Martin Wallace, Nova Inc Film & Television Ltd)
- The Research Landscape (Professor Paul Salkovskis, University of Oxford)
- Excerpts from 'Hoarding: The Musical' (Sheep Soup Theatre Company, Notts/London)

In addition, there will be display stands/stalls, raffles and plenty of chance to interact/network with participants who represent a wide range of communities, organisations and services.

Aimed at people/support workers/professionals working in: Social Housing; Health & Social Care; Commissioning; Community & Voluntary sector organisations; Social Prescribing; Police/Fire & Rescue services

The conference will also be beneficial for both people who are experiencing difficulties with hoarding/cluttering issues and their family/friends.

Attendance fee £50 per delegate
