Unleashed

North West Regional Hoarding Conference 2024

Wednesday 15th May 2024, 10am - 4pm

The Florence Institute ('The Florrie'), Mill St, Liverpool L8 4RF

HOARDING: Unplugged & Unleashed

Conference attendees will increase their hoarding literacy and will be provided with opportunities to engage with people who have substantial lived experience and expertise in this complex area.

Provisional conference content includes:

- Horrible Histories and what we can learn from them.
- The NW HHH 'movement' 2021-2024 PLUS National Hoarding Awareness Week – 10 years on.....What's changed & ...what's NEXT??
- Pathway to success – the design and development of a multi-agency landscape to support people who exhibit hoarding behaviours
- Group-based intervention and peer support: The NW 'model' (Q&A with current group facilitators and peer group members)
- Good practice case vignettes
- De-clutter diaries – how to translate 'lived experience' into 'lived expertise'
- Communication, communication, communication: What's love got to do with it?!
- Hoarding HQ Northwest: Launching a digital repository
- The Capacity Conundrum
- The Research Landscape (University of Oxford)
- 'Landfill of Memories' – The Sequel! (Susanna Amato – back by popular demand!)

In addition, there will be display stands/stalls, a great vibe in the room and plenty of opportunity to interact/network with participants who represent a wide range of communities, organisations, and services from across the North West and beyond.

Aimed at people working in: Social Housing; Health & Social Care; Commissioning; Community & Voluntary sector organisations; Social Prescribing; Police/Fire & Rescue services.

The conference will also be beneficial both for people who are experiencing difficulties with hoarding/cluttering and for their family/friends.

Conference fee: £75 per delegate (includes lunch and refreshments)

Peer Group Member sponsorship: £50 per peer
